British Bed & Breakfast is one of our bestsellers and no wonder. Where else can one find such a beautiful array of rectories, manses, city-chic London pads, postcard-pretty cottages, sea-view villas and farmhouses? If you're after outstanding architecture, inspiring views, beautiful interiors, friendly hosts and delicious breakfasts, you'll be spoilt for choice:

- Start the day with eggs Benedict, cinnamon brioche and great coffee at a boutique, seaside B&B in Kent
- Splendid isolation at a 200-year-old fog signal station in Anglesey with nothing to see but sea, sky, wheeling gulls and perhaps the odd dolphin
- It might be called British Bed & Breakfast but nearly 300 places offer dinner too saving guests a trip out – how civilised

The Ethical Collection

Special places that are going that extra mile to source food locally and/or organically, reducing the dreaded carbon footprint or playing a particularly positive role in their community should be recognised for their efforts. Each deserving entry is clearly marked and there's more detail at the back of the book.

All sorts of treats and discounts are on offer with the new Sawday's Travel Club membership which costs £25 per year. 10% off the room price, cream tea on arrival, three nights for the price of two or a trout-fishing day are just a few of the goodies on offer.

Field House

You drive over bridge and beck to this listed, 1713 farmhouse – expect comfort, homeliness and open fires. Pat and Geoff love showing guests their hens, horses, goats and lambs, and will tell you about the 14 circular walks or lend you a torch so you can find the pub across the fields! Ramblers will be in heaven – step out of the front door, past the lovely walled garden and you're in rolling, Bronte countryside.
